

The aims of

City of Chelmsford
Mencap C.I.O.

If City of Chelmsford Mencap becomes a modern type of charity called a CIO...

the charity's aims will be:

To make life better...

for people affected by learning disability.

This includes:

People with a learning disability

Their families

Their carers

Their children (if they have them).

We will do this by making sure they have access to:

Services

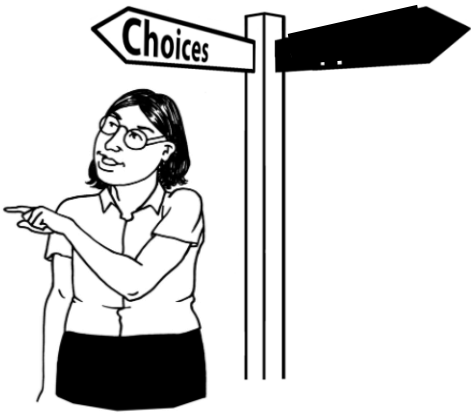

Support

Information

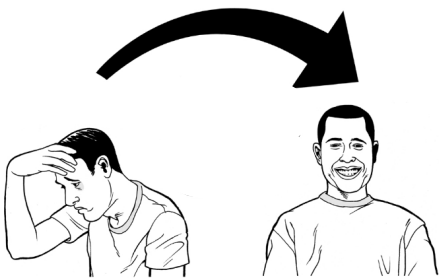

These things will help people to have:

Choices

Control over their life

Better quality of life

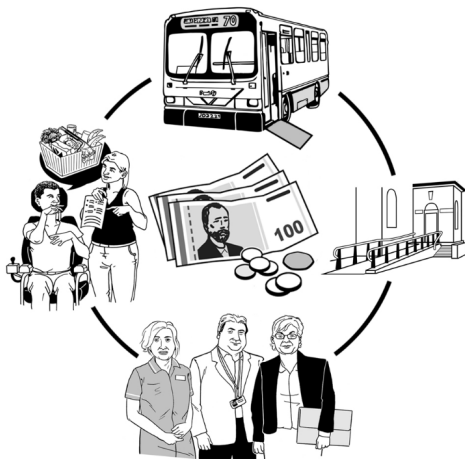

Help to fulfil their potential

City of Chelmsford Mencap CIO will also campaign...

for more equal access...

to public services...

and justice for people affected by learning disability.
